

Neami Practice Development Sessions Agreement

The following are the aims, objectives or foci of the PD sessions (optional):

In order to ensure that our PD sessions are a mutually rewarding and satisfying experience for both of us, we agree to:

1. Meet regularly.

We agree that our specific schedule of contact and meeting, including additional meetings, is as follows:

2. Have a balanced approach to the three components of Practice Development Sessions: mentoring, coaching and supervision.

We agree that there will be the following balance between these components:

3. Maintain confidentiality within our working alliance.

We agree that confidentiality encompasses:

4. Honour the ground rules we have developed for the working alliance.

We agree the ground rules as:

5. Provide regular feedback to each other and evaluate progress.

We agree to accomplish this by:
